CERTIFIED MAIL

Dear Sir or Madam:

On July 31, 1986, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) sent you/your company a letter requesting certain information and notifying you that you/your company may be a responsible party at the Harbor Island Superfund site. In response to numerous requests, the EPA hereby extends your time for responding to the EPA information request letter. The timetable for your written response is revised as follows:

- Question #1: Response due within ten (10) days of your receipt of the July 31 letter. If you have not yet responded to this question, your reply is overdue and I urge you to reply immediately.
- Question #9: Your reply to the first two sentences of Question 9 (see below) is due within thirty (30) days of your receipt of the July 31 letter.
- All other questions: Response due October 17, 1986.
(including remainder of Question 9)

Note that Question #9 should read:

"Provide a list of names, addresses, and dates of lease agreements of all current and past lessees of the property you/your company owns on Harbor Island. Indicate the exact location of the leased property.

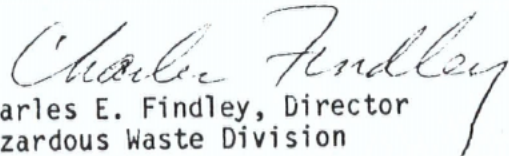

Also provide any information you may have regarding the type of activities that each lessee carried out on site, particularly as the information you have is relevant to the above questions."

EPA recognizes that the information request is broad in scope. If the information you possess is voluminous, please provide a complete written description of the types of information available and the types of records maintained by you or your company with regard to the information requested. EPA requests that these records be made available for agency review.

Failure to respond to the information request in a timely fashion may result in an order requiring compliance, a civil action for appropriate relief, or civil penalties, in accordance with Section 3008 of RCRA, 42 U.S.C. 6928.

Please contact Lori Cohen at (206) 442-2712 if you have any technical or policy questions regarding this matter. Please direct legal questions to Deborah Gates at (206) 442-1218.

Sincerely,
